General Data Protection Regulation

Revenue Scotland collects personal data to support the collection and management of the devolved taxes for which it is responsible for. We may also use information you provide to protect the revenue against tax fraud and avoidance.

Where the law permits or requires it, we may also get personal data about a taxpayer from third parties, or give personal data to third parties. These third parties include, among others: public bodies (such as HMRC, the Keeper of the Registers of Scotland and the Scottish Environment Protection Agency), tribunals, courts, law enforcement agencies (such as Police Scotland and the Crown Office and Procurator Fiscal Service), and our suppliers and service providers.

Further information on our data policies can be viewed on our website: www.revenue.scot/legal-notice
