Reviews and appeals

You have a statutory right to a review of our decision to assess these penalties. If you require Revenue Scotland to conduct such a review, then you must notify us in writing within 30 days of the date of this notice.

You have a statutory right of appeal to The Scottish Tribunals, which you may exercise if you do not request a review or if you are not satisfied with the outcome of a review. To do this, you must write to them within 30 days from the date of this penalty notice or, if you request a review, within 30 days from the completion of the review.

Transactions involving joint buyers

These penalties must be paid by one or all of the buyers in this transaction. We have written to the other buyer(s) in the same terms. You may wish to discuss arrangements for making payment with the other buyers.

If you need further information please see the penalties and interest factsheet available at www.revenue.scot/compliance-dispute-resolution/factsheets. Alternatively you can phone or email us using the details shown above.

A copy of this notice will be sent to your agent, if you have one acting on your behalf.
