How We Use Your Information

The Scottish Environment Protection Agency (SEPA) will be the data controller of the information you provide in this form.

SEPA was established under the Environment Act 1995 and is responsible for protecting and improving the environment. SEPA also has functions relating to Scottish Landfill Tax and is the regulator of the Scottish Landfill Communities Fund (the "Fund").

The information provided in this form will be processed by SEPA to monitor compliance with your obligations as an Approved Body, maintain the published register of Approved Bodies, collate and publish SLCF statistics and in otherwise discharging SEPA's regulatory obligations under the Regulations.

SEPA may also use your information:

- in exercising its other functions and powers in connection with the Scottish Landfill Tax, protecting and improving the environment;
- to offer/provide you with literature/services and guidance relating to the Fund, the Scottish Landfill Tax and other environmental affairs;
- to carry out statistical analysis, research and development on environmental and Scottish Landfill Tax issues;
- to provide published information to enquirers;
- to investigate possible breaches of environmental and Scottish Landfill Tax law and taking any resulting action;
- to prevent breaches of environmental and Scottish Landfill Tax law;
- for the purposes of public consultations; or
- to assess customer service satisfaction and improve our service.

We may also share your information with (and obtain information about you from) public bodies such as Revenue Scotland, the Scottish Government, the Police, HMRC, ENTRUST, the Health & Safety Executive, local authorities and the emergency services, and organisations and agents that act for them. Any such data sharing will be for various purposes, such as making sure the information is accurate, to prevent or detect crime, to protect public funds and enabling the relevant public bodies to perform their statutory functions.

You should ensure that any persons named on this form are informed of the contents of this notice.

Regulations

Regulation 30(1)(f) of the Scottish Landfill Tax (Administration) Regulations 2015 (the Regulations) requires you to submit the following information to SEPA within 7 days of receiving a qualifying contribution:

- the amount;
- the date received;
- the name and registration number of the contributor;
- the name and address of any contributing third party related to the contribution.

This form makes provision for the first three items of statutory information that an Approved Body must provide to SEPA to comply with the Regulations. Failure to provide this information by the statutory deadline (7 days) may result in enforcement action being taken. Any contributing third party information should be submitted to SEPA on the separate Contributing Third Party form.

Submission

Please complete this form electronically and return to slcf@sepa.org.uk
